

How to read newspapers

In the MLOL newsstand you can find thousands of magazines and periodicals from all over the world, including your local newspapers available every day in digital version. You can leaf through them, watch images and read texts, on your favourite device: the newspapers from the PressReader database can be read on your computer, as well as on your smartphone and tablet through the appropriate app.

For all technical details, refer to the MLOL GUIDA can find under the heading HELP

How to access

It's easy! Ask for your username and password at the library, go to www.medialibrary.it, select from the menu the institution in which you are registered and enter your login information. The resources are available 24/7.

WHEN, WHERE AND HOW YOU WANT:

to access you just need an Internet connection.

Do you need help?

For any question, click on the button Do you need help? at the bottom of every page and follow the recommended procedure to contact the help desk.

If you have doubts, but you do not have a MLOL account, write to info@medialibrary.it

www.medialibrary.it

mlo

What is MLOL?

MLOL is the first and most important digital lending platform in Italy, davailable in 5.500 libraries of 19 Regions and 9 foreign countries.

What services can you find?

MLOL contents are divided into MLOL Resources e Open Resources.

MLOL Resources are contents that your library chose to buy and make available for you.

These include ebooks of major Italian publishers, a newsstand with thousands of newspapers and magazines from all around the world, audio books and music.

The Open Resources collection includes hundreds of thousands of open access digital contents.

A selection of ebooks, audiobooks, sheet music, audio and video resources, e-learning, maps and much more, which can be used by everyone and without any limitation.

How to search

Click on the SEARCH button in the menu and write one or more words: your search will take place in the whole website. For example, if you search for "Umberto Eco", you will find e-books and much more in both the MLOL Resources and the Open Resources.

In the section Explore on the left you can find filters that will help you better finalize your search. Choose the TYPES and SUBJECTS you are interested in, or select a specific PUBLISHER or LANGUAGE. Remember that for the e-books you can choose the filter ONLY TITLES AVAILABLE NOW, that will show you the titles you can immediately borrow.

How to read e-books

You can read MLOL e-books on computers, smartphones, tablets and compatible e-readers.

For instance, if you use an iOS or Android device, you can use the app MLOL Reader to borrow your favourite e-books.

